The choice of protocol begins with the baby’s estimated date of arrival.

Whether or not the mother has functioning ovaries will determine which protocol to follow.

The choice of when to start breastfeeding and/or pumping begins with the baby’s estimated date of arrival and whether or not the mother has completed the protocol.

Instructions for the mother regarding medications, herbs, breastfeeding and/or pumping.

References: